I am stuck in the Lighthouse basement in the Stoneship Age. Somehow I fell down into the basement and now I can't get out. What do I do now?

Thank you to those who reported this issue! We are happy to say that we were recently able to find the condition that allows for this error to happen. A fix has been made and will be included in our next update to realMyst. We don't have a date yet as to when that will be, but it will be in the near future.
