Can I make an autograph request for my fan memorabilia?

Lloyd W - 2019-10-14 - in General Information

Q: I've got fan memorabilia and would really like to send it in to Rand to have him sign it. I'll pay all the return shipping costs for this request. Can I do it?

A: We're truly humbled by our fans' desire to interact with not only the worlds and stories we create, but with the creators themselves!

We'd love to support offers like this, but due to our creators' busy schedules, we're no longer able to accept Autograph requests involving the shipping of your personal memorabilia to Cyan.

When Rand and other studio talent take part in events (Mysterium, PAX, Gamescom, etc.) there may be time scheduled during the events for meet & greet or autograph signing opportunities.

We respectfully ask you to pursue those event opportunities for your chance to get an autograph from your favorite Cyan creator.
